

Rooster Crowing Contest Department F-2

Chairman:
W.G. Burton, Winston-Salem, NC

RULES, REGULATIONS AND INFORMATION

1. The 2008 Rooster Crowing Contest will be held Tuesday, October 7 from 4:00 pm to 4:30 pm.
2. The location of the contest will be at the front entrance of the Poultry & Pigeons building.
3. No entry fee is required.
4. On the day of the contest, the participant will be admitted to the Fairgrounds upon presentation of entry tag and rooster, or if rooster is on exhibit, a pass will be issued by the Poultry Superintendent.
5. The contest is open to the world: LIMIT: One Bird Per Exhibitor.
6. The bird with the largest number of crows wins the championship. The Fair will provide special prizes for the Grand Champion and Reserve Champion.
7. Any ties will be "crowed off" by rules set up by the committee in charge of contest.
8. Roosters will be penned in individual coops and handlers cannot clap or annoy birds. Exhibitors will not be permitted to disturb rooster during contest.

Watch For Some Of The Roaming Attractions Throughout The Fairgrounds

Stiltwalker,
Carrie McQueen

BC Characters

Buford Bear and His Miniature Truck

